GREETINGS FROM THE CHAIR AND CO-CHAIR

Greetings from the Chair, Berta Hernández-Truyol and Chair-Elect, Kevin Johnson, of the Minority Groups Section. This year has been a highly successful one for the section. At the outset, we want to thank the members of the 2000 Executive Committee: Len Baynes (Secretary-Treasurer), Bob Chang, Jack Chin, Angela Davis, Beverly Moran, Frank Valdes, and Adrien Wing for their hard work and support this year.

AALS MINORITY GROUPS SECTION NEWSLETTER

October 2000

Section activities have included selections of the Section award winners (to be announced at the Section luncheon at the AALS), this newsletter, the mentor program, the listserv (Thanks, Odeana Neal!), and organizing the various programs and events for the annual AALS meeting in the beautiful city by the bay, San Francisco. We organized one main program and one joint program for the 2001 annual meeting. The Minority Groups Section program, with an important business meeting to follow, is entitled "Building Community in the New Millennium—Cross Cultural Conversations." It will be early Saturday morning, January 6. A diverse and thoughtful group of speakers (see below) will discuss specific and concrete ways to build bridges between different communities.

At the Minority Groups Section annual luncheon on Saturday, Eva Jefferson Paterson, Executive Director of the Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights for the San Francisco Bay Area, will continue our discussion of the "building community" theme. We also will name the Section award winners, including the Clyde Ferguson Award for contributions to teaching and diversity.

The Minority Groups Section and the Section of Gay and Lesbian Legal Issues will sponsor a joint program on Wednesday, January 3 entitled "Intersecting Race, Gender, and Sexual Orientation: Theoretical and Activist Perspectives."

We would like to recognize H.G. Prince, Section member, who completes his highly successful stint as Deputy Director of the AALS this spring. Section members Greg Williams (immediate past president), Rachel Moran (Executive Committee, AALS), and Anita Allen-Castellito (Executive Committee, AALS), also were AALS leaders this year.
